

Watlington Air Quality

NO₂ Monitor at Town Hall

The monitor on the Town Hall records the average NO₂ concentration for each hour throughout the day as in indication of the level of air pollution. The unverified results are shown below in comparison with the EC hourly and annual objectives for air quality. The hourly objective was exceeded once during April, taking the total for the year to 7. (18 exceedances are allowed per year).

