The Church of St. Edmund Campion, situated in Watcombe Road, is the parish church for the Catholic population in Watlington and the surrounding area and is part of the Archdiocese of Birmingham. There is a daily celebration of Mass and throughout the day the chapel is available for quiet prayer.	Contact: The Parish Priest, Watcombe Road Tel: 01491-612431 edcamp@watox.freeseerve.co.uk
Watlington Free Christian Fellowship was formed about 20 years ago. The group is a non-denominational evangelical fellowship, meeting on Tuesday evenings at 7.45pm at 13 Saunders Close. All are welcome to join in Prayer, Praise and Bible Study.	Contact: Mrs Margaret Hook 01491 612875
Methodist Church, Watlington Our purpose as a church is to increase awareness of God's presence and celebrate God's love, to help people to grow and learn as Christians, to be a good neighbour to people in need, challenge injustice, and to make more followers of Jesus Christ. We meet regularly for worship and fellowship.	Contact: Rev. Charlotte Collins, 14 Church Lane, Chinnor, Oxon or Phil Crockett Tel: 01491 612801
St Leonard's, The Church of England Parish Church of Watlington is more than its building – the oldest in Watlington but newly restored to bright multi-purpose use. The Church is its people, young and old, who worship there and seek to serve God and our community. Everybody is very welcome to come and join us. Details of services are on the notice board outside the church. Watlington Anglican Churchyard – every Watlington resident has the legal right to be buried there. Volunteers are welcome on the 2nd Saturday of each month at 9.30 am to maintain the 1000 grave area. South African Link – The Anglican Benefice (Watlington, Britwell Salome, Pyrton and Swyncombe) formed a link with the Black Township parish of Mothibistad, near Kuruman in South Africa, which has been running for over 10 years. In addition to exchange visits, support has recently developed for HIV/Aids work, mainly among married women whose husbands have passed it on after working away from home, and for community work, particularly among the unemployed.	Contact: Rev Christopher Evans, The Rectory, Hill Road, Watlington, OX49 5AD Tel: 01491 613231 rector-icknield@btconnect.com
